

Satan takes a Holiday

Larry Clinton – 1937

| | | | | | | | |
|------------|--------------|----------|-----------|------------|--------------|----------|--------------|
| Dm Dm7M | Dm7 Bm7b5 | Bb Dm | Bb7 A7 | Dm Dm7M | Dm7 Bm7b5 | Bb Dm | Bb7 A7 Dm |
| Dm Dm7M | Dm7 Bm7b5 | Bb Dm | Bb7 A7 | Dm Dm7M | Dm7 Bm7b5 | Bb Dm | Bb7 A7 Dm |
| C7 | % | F | % | D7 | % | Gm | A7 |
| Dm Dm7M | Dm7 Bm7b5 | Bb Dm | Bb7 A7 | Dm Dm7M | Dm7 Bm7b5 | Bb Dm | Bb7 A7 Dm |

The Devil started dancin'
 He was quite entrancin'
 hen he did the 'Jangle: his own way
 His bones were rattlin loudly,
 As he began to shuffle proudly.
 Thats the way that Satan takes a holiday

The music wasn t good,
 But it was plenty spooky.
 That s the way he likes it night and day
 the gentleman prefers to listen
 To aggravatin rhythm
 Thats the way Satan takes a holiday.

Watch out,
 He's comin' out,
 And then you'll shout
 unless you're good, knock wood.

He's really rather goofy
 tryin' to be spooky,
 But he has to do it day by day
 His job is not allurin'
 never-the-less quite endurin'
 Maybe that's why Satan takes a holiday